ADMISSION DECISIONS
Decisions are made by each college and major on a rolling basis with preference given to applicants with the highest GPA, most appropriate courses for the specified college/major, and compelling essay.

Applicants denied by their first-choice major may be reviewed by their second-choice major.

Summer/fall applicants may be asked to submit spring grades before a decision is made.

Frequent course drops/withdraws and unsatisfactory grades (D or F, depending on intended major) are considered in review.

In-progress courses listed on an official transcript could factor into admission decisions depending on the college/major.

TIPS FOR APPLYING
Submit the application and required documents early in the admissions cycle. Allow 2-3 weeks to process each document.

Be sure to list all previous colleges or universities in the application. This includes dual credit institutions.

Check your application status online at howdy.tamu.edu. It is the applicant’s responsibility to ensure completion of the file.

Required documents submitted within one month of the deadline may not be noted as received until after the deadline has passed.
