Additional Transfer Requirements

Transfer applicants must meet all College of Liberal Arts requirements in order to be considered for admission to the Department of Communication (minimum of 24 graded transferable hours, with at least a 3.0 GPA at the time of application).

Transfer applicants should have completed a full semester course load of 12 transferable hours (minimum) after graduating from high school.

Additional Information

The Department of Communication is looking for students who are interested in pursuing our degree as a focus. Students should indicate our department as the primary major they are interested in if they wish to be admitted. The essay and supporting materials should reflect that the student is interested in pursuing our degree.

Second-choice majors are considered.

Additionally, students should have at least a recent semester in which 12 graded hours were completed in a semester.

Applications should be limited only to those students who are serious about earning a degree in Communication. Transfer applicants are instructed NOT to accept transfer admission to any major with the expectation of later applying for an on-campus change of major.

Transfer applicants are encouraged to complete University Core Curriculum coursework found in the Undergraduate Catalog.

Transfer Course Sheet Notes

- ENGL 1301 is accepted for ENGL 104 if completed prior to fall 2014.
- Meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. The entire record is reviewed for consistency in coursework and grades.
- Applicants should consider transfer before 74 hours.
- This Transfer Course Sheet was supported in a partnership between The Office of Admissions and College of Liberal Arts at Texas A&M University with the Undergraduate Catalog having the most extant and definitive information.
