Coursework Timeline

- Competitive applicants may wish to have the required and recommended coursework completed by the application deadline.
- Applicants to the summer/fall term may be asked to submit spring final grades, this is not a guarantee.
- Summer coursework will not be considered for summer/fall applicants.
- Fall coursework will not be considered for spring applicants.
- Applicants to the spring term may wish to have the required and recommended coursework completed by the end of Summer II semester before applying.

Additional Transfer Requirements

- Transfer applicants should have completed a full semester (spring or fall) course load of 12 transferable hours (minimum) after graduating from high school.
- The Department of Communication and Journalism is looking for students who are interested in pursuing our degree and graduating with a degree in either Communication or in Telecommunication Media Studies or in Journalism. Students should indicate our department as the primary major they are interested in if they wish to be admitted. The essay and supporting materials should reflect that the student is interested in pursuing our Communication degree.
- The only acceptable COMM/SPCH courses from a community college are Introduction to Communication (1311,) Public Speaking (1315,) Group Communication (2333,) Argumentation & Debate (2335,) Oral Interpretation (2341.)
- Meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. The entire record is reviewed for consistency in coursework and grades.
- Maximum credit hours listed are hours completed at the time of application. All courses completed, regardless of degree applicability, are considered including transcribed credit by exam hours.
- Applicants cannot select which hours are transferable, or opt to exclude completed hours, and all hours will be factored when calculating maximum transferable hours.

Additional Information

- Applicants should be serious about earning a degree in Communication or Journalism or Telecommunication Media Studies
- Transfer applicants are instructed NOT to accept transfer admission to any major with the expectation of later applying for an on-campus change of major.

Career & Educational Opportunities

In the BS-COMM, we teach you how to analyze situations, design and conduct background research, collect, analyze, display and evaluate data, and create messages which allow you to intervene for mutual benefit. Whether you are intervening to sell products and conduct business, promote people or ideas, or work to foster political, religious or social ideas, the principles and practice of communication intervention, serve well. Students must select either a minor or a CMJR certificate. Certificates further guide student in intervention contexts ranging from Health Communication, Strategic Communication (public relations, integrated marketing communication, advertising, promotions,) Social Media, or Leadership and Conflict Management. This degree teaches you how get results.
