Coursework Timeline

- Competitive applicants will have the Required and Recommended coursework completed by the application deadline.
- Applicants to the summer/fall term may be asked to submit spring final grades, this is not a guarantee.
- Summer coursework will not be considered for summer/fall applicants.
- Fall coursework will not be considered for spring applicants.
- Applicants to the spring term should have the Required coursework completed by the end of Summer II semester before applying.

Additional Transfer Requirements

- Transfer applicants should have completed a full semester (spring or fall) course load of 12 transferable hours (minimum) after graduating from high school.
- The Department of International Affairs is looking for students who are interested in pursuing our degree as a focus. The essay and supporting materials should reflect the students' interest in pursuing our degree, including but not limited to background circumstances in academic career, influences towards major consideration, career aspirations with degree as part of students' path, and students' understanding of impacts from acts of service.
- Meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. The entire record is reviewed for consistency in coursework and grades, and preference is given to applicants with the highest GPA and the most appropriate courses completed.
- Maximum credit hours listed are hours completed at the time of application. All courses completed, regardless of degree applicability, are considered including transcribed credit by exam hours.
- Applicants cannot select which hours are transferable, or opt to exclude completed hours, and all hours will be factored when calculating maximum transferable hours.

Additional Information

- Applicants understand and agree to continue progress with the same foreign language as previously completed before transfer.
- Transfer applicants are instructed NOT to accept transfer admission to any major with the expectation of later applying for an on-campus change of major.
- International Experience is required after completion of the intermediate language level to complete this degree program.

Career & Educational Opportunities

This interdisciplinary program captures the broad range of social, political, cultural, and economic forces at play in an increasingly interdependent world. Courses are linked by language, topic, and region of the world, and class work is enhanced by a related international study abroad experience. The degree couples a thorough background in foreign language with one of six separate degree tracks: Politics and Diplomacy; Commerce; Communication and Media Studies; Global Cultural Studies; Environmental Studies; or Geographic Information Systems. Students develop language proficiency, analytical skills, substantive knowledge, and cultural sensitivity. For more information please visit careercenter.tamu.edu.
